BOARD OF LIQUOR LICENSE COMMISSIONERS FOR BALTIMORE CITY CANCELS MARCH 26, 2020 PUBLIC HEARINGS

Baltimore, MD – On March 18, 2020, the Board of Liquor License Commissioners for Baltimore City (BLLC) canceled its public hearings scheduled for March 26, 2020 out of concern for the health and well-being of the general public and BLLC staff arising from COVID-19.

Chairman Matricciani stated that “Public health and safety is our primary focus. Although it is unfortunate, we find it necessary to cancel the hearings scheduled for March 26, 2020, out of an abundance of caution as we seek to limit and prevent the spread of COVID-19.” He added, “The BLLC thanks all stakeholders for their understanding and patience as the agency works to ensure the safety of its staff and the general public.”

Cases scheduled for the March 26, 2020 docket will be rescheduled for a later date that has yet to be determined. Parties in each case will be contacted by the BLLC and notified of the new hearing date.
